Magellan

Discover. Learn. Transform.

Ready for the adventure of a lifetime? The Magellan Exchange gives university students (like YOU!) the chance to live and learn in another country for a semester, academic year, or short-term program – all at an affordable cost.

You won't just visit a new country – you'll dive into university life, experience a new culture firsthand, and grow academically, personally and even professionally. You'll build global skills, develop cultural understanding, and return home with unforgettable memories, new perspectives, and friendships that will last a lifetime!

Why wait? Apply now – your global adventure starts with Magellan!

+ English-taught courses
+ No tuition fee at the host institution
+ Financial aid & scholarships generally apply

Application Process

Research your options on the Magellan website, magellanexchange.org, then consult with your academic advisor and the Magellan coordinator at your school. When you are ready to apply, complete the simple online application on our website. We'll review your profile, confirm your placement and put you in contact with your host institution.

Program Costs

You will pay normal tuition/fees to your home institution, as appropriate. You are responsible for international airfare, passport and visa, room and board, textbooks, health insurance and personal expenses. Some member schools may have other miscellaneous fees. Remember, scholarships and financial aid generally apply to study abroad – and don't forget to ask if there are any special funds or scholarships for international experiences available from your home institution!
